

Education and Training Voucher (ETV) Program

Education and Training Voucher (ETV) Program

The Education and Training Voucher (ETV) Program is designed to assist students who have experienced foster care with financial supports for educational and living expenses while attending a post- secondary educational institution

ETV Eligibility Requirements

Student must have been in foster care for at least 6 months (whether or not the months are consecutive) with at least one day of that 6 months coming on or after the student's 14th birthday

If a student entered kinship guardianship or was adopted after attaining the age of 16, they must have been in foster care for at least 6 months (whether or not the months are consecutive) with at least one day of that 6 months coming on or after the student's 14th birthday

If a student was reunified with one or more of their biological parents after attaining age 16, they must have been in foster care for at least 6 months (whether or not the months are consecutive) with at least one day of that 6 months coming on or after the student's 14th birthday

Additional Criteria

- Student must attend an accredited college or tech school
- Student is limited to a maximum of 5 years of ETV support
 - * One "Year" is utilized when a student spends ETV dollars between July 1st and June 30th of the following year
- Student must be under the age of 26
- ETV funds are 'last dollar' funds, meaning all other sources of financial aid are applied first and ETV funds can be used to meet unmet need
- Student must be enrolled in school on the date they attain age 21 and continue to make satisfactory progress toward their degree to receive support at and beyond the age of 21

Students must attend educationally accredited institutions in order to receive ETV. To check school accreditations, visit:

<https://www.ed.gov/accreditation> or <https://nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator/>

What ETV Pays For

The Education and Training Voucher (ETV) Program helps pay for Cost of Attendance which often includes:

ETV Expenses are paid to...

Institutions (Schools)

Tuition, housing and meal plans on campus, books, supplies, tools, and equipment related to current coursework, (after aid is applied, e.g., Pell and HOPE Scholarships)

ETV will work with an ILS to pay these expenses directly to the school

The student will be responsible for providing applicable invoices and paperwork before payment can be made

Students

Payments that cannot be paid directly to the school but are considered cost of attendance can potentially be paid by the student and then reimbursed

ETV will work with an ILS to pay these expenses directly to the student through a check or direct deposit

The student will be responsible for providing applicable receipts, information and paperwork before payment can be made

Getting Approval

The student MUST communicate and coordinate with their Independent Living Specialist consistently to determine what expenses are covered.

Students will also have to work closely with their financial aid and/or student accounts office at their school to make sure the school has everything they need to authorize payments correctly and make sure schedules/classes aren't dropped.

Getting and Keeping ETV

In order to access ETV support, eligible students must...

1) Connect with their ILS

2) Be accepted into college or technical school

ILS: Independent Living Specialist; view page 19 or go to:

<http://www.garyse-ilp.org/>

3) Graduate high school or get their GED

Once students begin receiving ETV support, they must...

An application allows students to share their goals and plans and changes (ex. transfer schools)

Complete Application

Schedules help confirm enrollment, grades and plan for ETV spending each semester

Submit Class Schedules

Communicate with their ILS

Submit Grades

Submit Invoices

Some schools will work directly with an ILS to submit invoices and some will require students to submit those to their ILS

Students must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher to continue receiving ETV. They must provide that grade report at the end of each semester

Developing strong, positive relationships with an Independent Living Specialist is the most important component to a student receiving ETV support consistently and timely
