Other Useful Resources

Georgia Independent Living Program

Our mission is to provide eligible youth with opportunities to successfully prepare for adulthood through appropriate referral resources and connections provided by community partners. For years, adolescents who left foster care have experienced significant challenges in successfully transitioning to adulthood. OUR VISION: To ensure youth are stable, healthy, connected, employed, and educated

FAFSA

Use the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) form to apply for financial aid for college or grad school. Federal Student Aid, a part of the U.S. Department of Education, is the largest provider of student financial aid in the nation. Federal Student Aid is responsible for managing the student financial assistance programs authorized under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965

UNIVERSITY SYSTEM OF GEORGIA

The University System of Georgia

The University System of Georgia (USG) is a part of the community in each of Georgia's 159 counties and provides services across the state. The USG is composed of 26 higher education institutions including four research universities, four comprehensive universities, nine state universities and nine state colleges

GAfutures

Founded in 1965, the Georgia Student Finance Commission has become one of the most successful state student aid operations in the nation. First created to provide loans, the agency progressed to state- and lottery-funded scholarships, grants, service cancelable loan programs and providing free financial aid consultation. GSFC's mission is to ensure Georgians have an opportunity to access education beyond high school

Technical College System of Georgia

The Technical College System of Georgia (TCSG) oversees the state's technical colleges, adult literacy programs, and a host of economic and workforce development programs. The Technical College System of Georgia provides technical, academic and adult education and training focused on building a well-educated, globally competitive workforce for Georgia

NCES College Navigator

College Navigator consists primarily of the latest data from the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS), the core postsecondary education data collection program for NCES – the National Center for Education Statistics

Other Useful Resources

Scholarship Academy

The Scholarship Academy (TSA) is a comprehensive scholarship preparatory program that teaches low-income, first generation college students to navigate the maze of financial aid in order to fund their college education

FAFSA

Everybody wants to go to college for free and, Fastweb, is in the business of helping students achieve that dream through offering a simplified college scholarship search. Fastweb hopes to eliminate the "search" from the scholarship search, allowing students to find scholarships that match their qualifications and interests. Ultimately, Fastweb hope to save time, match students to college scholarships that they may not have otherwise found and keep them organized throughout the whole process

Purdue Owl Writing Lab

The Online Writing Lab (OWL) at Purdue University houses writing resources and instructional material, and provides these as a free service of the Writing Lab at Purdue. Students, members of the community, and users worldwide will find information to assist with many writing projects.

Glossary

Commonly used terms related to post-secondary education and financial aid

Accreditation

Confirms that the college or career school meets certain minimum academic standards, as defined by an accrediting body recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Schools must be accredited to be eligible to participate in federal student aid programs

Associate Degree

An undergraduate academic degree granted after completion of two years of study. Community colleges and career colleges generally award associate degrees

Bachelor's Degree

An undergraduate academic degree awarded for a course of study that generally lasts four years. Colleges or universities generally award bachelor's degrees

Cost of Attendance (COA)

The total amount it will cost you to go to school—usually stated as a yearly figure. COA includes tuition and fees; room and board (or a housing and food allowance); and allowances for books, supplies, transportation, loan fees, and dependent care. It also includes miscellaneous and personal expenses, including an allowance for the rental or purchase of a personal computer; costs related to a disability; and reasonable costs for eligible study-abroad programs

FAFSA

Free Application for Federal Student Aid

Federal Pell Grant

A federal grant for undergraduate students with financial need

Federal Student Aid

Financial aid from the federal government to help you pay for education expenses at an eligible college or career school. Grants, loans and work-study are types of federal student aid. You must complete the FAFSA to apply for this aid

Federal Student Loan

A loan funded by the federal government to help pay for your education. A federal student loan is borrowed money you must repay with interest

Federal Work-Study

A federal student aid program that provides part-time employment while you are enrolled in school to help pay your education expenses

Fees

Fees depend upon your school. Examples include activities fees and parking decal fees. Schools can provide a list of fees

Glossary

Financial Aid Offer

The total amount of financial aid (federal and nonfederal) a student is offered by a college or career school. The school's financial aid staff combines various forms of aid into a "package" to help meet a student's education costs

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)

The FREE application used to apply for federal student aid, such as federal grants, loans, and work- study

Grant

Financial Aid, often based on financial need that does not need to be repaid (unless, for example, you withdraw from school and owe a refund)

Merit-based

Based on a student's skill or ability. Example: A merit-based scholarship might be awarded based on a student's high grades

Need-based

Based on a student's financial need. Example: A need-based grant might be awarded based on a student's low income

Post-Secondary Institution

Education system that offers a degree or certificate program after high school is completed or GED is received

Proprietary School

A private for-profit school that provides education and training

Room and Board

An allowance for the cost of housing and food while attending college or career school

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

A school's standards for satisfactory academic progress toward a degree or certificate offered by that institution. Check with your school to find out its standards

Scholarship

Money awarded to students based on academic or other achievements to help pay for education expenses. Scholarships generally do not have to be repaid

Tuition

The cost of taking courses. Course costs vary by school

Work-Study

A federal student aid program that provides part-time employment while you are enrolled in school to help pay your education expenses
